J. F. Deems, a native of Washington county, now residing at Burlington, Iowa, is seeking the Republican nomination for Governor of his adopt-state on the Republican ticket at the primaries to be held in June, 1920. He recently announced his candidacy, following urgent appeals from all parts of his state.

Mr. Deems has had a remarkable career, making his start in the world when be was 11 years of age. He is a son of the late John and Mary Reynolds Deems, and was born near Beallsville. His father died when he was just a boy, and as the member of a large family he started out for himself when he was 11 years of age.

Learning the machinist trade Mr Deems used this ocupation as a means to work himself through college. He continued as a machmist and progressed rapidly through all its departments until he became superintendent of motive power for theentire Burlington system.

Later he was offered and accepted a position as superintendent of all the rolling stock and shops of the New York Central, having 13,000 miles of railroads under his control.

Sixteen years ago he resigned this position and went back to Iowa to become a farmer. He purchased a tract of land near Burlington, Des Moines county, and has resided on it since. His farm is one of the most modern in the state.

During the war Mr. Deems was federal food administrator for the state of Iowa. He was urged while still holding this office to announce his candidacy and did not enter the political arena until after he had resigned his position. George R. Deems of Beallsville is a brother.

P. H. C. Membership Campaign Promises to Be Very Successful

State Deputy M. C. Cochran, in charge of Central Pennsylvania division for the Protected Home Circle, arrived in Charleroi Wednesday in the interest of the local circle, No. 303, whose members have recently organized a fall and winter membership contest, in which a great deal of interest is already being taken, and which is now in full swing. Local Deputy J. H. DeRusha is in charge of the local campaign and with the aid of the local boosters expects to make it one of the most successful ever held in this vicinity.

Mr. Cochran will remain until the last of the week, dividing his time between Donora, Monongahela and Monessen, with a view of reviving an interest among the members of the Circles in those towns.

Members of the Charleroi Circle have entered the present membership contest with a vim and energy that spells success, and already eight new applicants have been accepted. It is expected that at least a class of ten members will qualify for the trip to Uniontown on the 16th of December, where the Grand Circle Degree will be conferred under the special direction of Grand President Evan M. Roberts of Pittsburgh, the whole to conclude with a banquet. "One hundred new members and on to Uniontown" is the slogan set by the members of Charleroi Circle.

Music, dancing and lunch concluded one of the best meetings held by the local Circle in many months. The social committee of the Circle has arranged for a euchre to be given next Wednesday evening.

ACCIDENT DUE TO RECKLESS DRIVING

In the death of Mrs. Marietta Dunn of Ellwood City, who was killed last Friday evening on the Charleroi-Donora road, when an automobile in which she was riding, turned over. Coroner James Heffran, on his own investigation, has determined that the accident was due to the reckless driving of George B. McDonald of Monessen, driver of the car, and who had with him as his guests Mrs. Dunn, who was killed and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carson and Miss Della Simpson all of Monessen.

Friends of the driver insisted that he was not driving fast. but the fact that about seven panels of fence were torn out before the car turned over indicated to the Coroner that the car was moving very rapidly.

HOME-COMING CELEBRATION TO LAST ONE WEEK AT DONORA

INCREASED ENROLLMENT OF DONORA SCHOOLS

Donora's public school enrollment shows a healthy increase over last year, when a total of 2,285 pupils entered the various grades. Two hundred and sixty children were enrolled as beginners in the first grade, the greatest number ever listed at the school opening. The total enrollment is expected to be over 200 more than last year. and increased facilities for caring for the younger children have been provided by utilizing the basement of the schools.

COMING DRIVE DESERVES SUCCESS

Few organizations have a hold on the public affections and imagination such as the Salvation Army has secured. The work of mercy performed during the war, the high moral courage of the men and women engaged in its labors, together with the conceptions of help and mercy that have characterized the Salvation Army since its beginning have crystalized into an admiration for its workings that has no parallel in broadness of appeal.

With this feeling prevalent, it is reasonable to expect that the Salvation Army Drive, beginning on September 15th, will meet with the response it deserves. People of this day seem to have gained a vision of the great and noble work the Salvation Army is destined to do in the years to come. The pure and unselfish aims of its leaders have become recognized principles. Choosing for themselves the lowliest position in the work of reclamation and convention, they suddenly find themselves the center of interest and assistance among people of all classes, high and low, rich and poor.

If ever a drive deserved to be a success it is that of this month when the Salvation Army will be helped to a higher position of helpfulness toward those who walk the common ways of life.

In connection with the forthcoming drive campaign headquarters have been opened in the Municipal building first floor front, the Bell phone being No. 8.

POSTAL CLERKS TO GET AN INCREASE

A flat increase of $150 in the annual wages of all postoffice employes is provided by a bill passed on Thursday by the House and senate at Washington. The increase is retroactive to July 1st last and effects approximately 250,000 employes. In addition to providing the flat increase for permanent employes the bill gives an increase from 40 cents to 60 cents an hour for temporary and auxiliary employes. Both increases, which are for one year will cost the government $40,000,000, causing a deficit of that amount in the postal revenues, according to the estimates of the department.

New Features Will Be Provided for Every Day of Festivities

IN CHARGE OF AMERICAN LEGION

The Donora Post of the American Legion is arranging for a home-coming carnival, to last a full week, dates for which will be selected in a few days.

It is the purpose of the legion, in connection with officials from the steel mills and citizens of Donora, to stage a series of entertainments and parades over an entire week, which will embrace many interesting features, and in which the entire citizenship of the town will be asked to participate. The carnival part of the entertainment will be looked after by local talent. the Post having a two-fold object in view, first, the creation of a fund looking toward the financing of the local post to provide a public place of assembly for the 500 or more soldiers, sailors and marines of Donora and vicinity, and, second, to bring together the service men, their families and the citizens of the town in order that a stronger social and civic spirit may be engendered.

By looking after the various features on the program with local talent the Post will be able to produce entertainments at a minimum cost, thus making the returns in a financial way much greater to the Post. Ben G. Binns has been selected as chairman of the general committee which will have the arrangements in charge, and it is proposed to make the occasion one of the most successful home-comings for the soldier boys ever held in the valley.

NEW PIANO STORE FOR CHARLEROI

H. T. Hanmer, superintendent of agencies for the Story & Clark Piano company of Chicago, has opened a branch store for the company at 407 McKean avenue, Charleroi. This store will not be a mere agency for the company, but a direct representative of the corporation, handling the finest products of the factory which is located at Grand Haven, Michigan. Story & Clark pianos are well known instrument, and Mr. Hanmer, who expects to remain in charge of the local venture until the first of the coming year, assures all prospective patrons that the instruments on display are of the finest in their class, and that wherever they have been installed have always given satisfaction.

THE SALARIED MAN

A teelegram from New York, published in many of the larger daily papers, tells of thefamilies of many clerks and low-salaried office men seeking charity in that town. These men, all of whom have families of four and five children, receive salaries ranging from $1,100 to $1,400 per year, but so high are living costs that they are unable to support their families on the compensation they received. As a consequence they are compelled to make other arrangements to take care of their children, placing them in homes, and in one case aman giving up twin children to be adopted by another family.

The New York department of charity had many cases of a similar character to come within its jurisdiction during the past few months and Mr. Bird S. Coler, in charge of the department, is led to remark that "the subject of pity these days is not the down-and-outer who is forced to ask charity because of drinking or like troubles. It is the respectable family man working in our offices, in bank departments, the clerks in big businesses. We can cite a large number of cases where these men, who must keep up appearances in their work a re being gradually forced to the humiliation of public charity."

As Hon. Henry W. Temple said in a letter to one of his constituents "the salaried man is chained to the bottom and the flood is passing over him."

Charleroi, Pa., September 5th, 1919.

To My Friends and Acquaintances:

Having purchased a Story & Clark piano eight years ago, which instrument has given me perfect satisfaction, and being desirous of having a player piano in my home, I have this 5th day of September, 1919, purchased a Story & Clark player piano from their branch factory store at 407 McKean Avenue, Charleroi. I can heartily recommend the Story & Clark Piano Company to anyone wishing a piano or player, for by experience I can say they give their customers a protection which insures safety and I can vouch for their honest and fair dealing.
